CATEGORY MANAGEMENT, OTHER TRANSACTION AUTHORITIES (OTAs) & COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS

Opportunities for Success

Learn how your company may fit into strategies being employed by the Air Force to manage resources and solve complex problems - Category Management, Other Transaction Authorities (OTA) and Cooperative Agreements (CA). Knowledge of these practices can help companies position themselves to participate in Department of Defense (DoD) requirements ranging from commercial items/services to cutting edge research and development. Understand the Air Force's approach to category management and how it is shaping the future of acquisition. Hear examples of the DoD using OTA for research or prototype instruments and a CA to quickly and effectively develop partnerships between government, industry, academia and non-profits, with an emphasis on highly innovative non-traditional and small business partners.
